

April 17, 2019

An article on CISTEC's roles and activities has been published in the "Winter / Spring 2019" issue of "Strategic Trade Review"

The article titled “The Center for Information on Security Trade Control (CISTEC) Export Control Model of Japan: Role, Utility, and Management” has been published in the page 77 to 92 of the "Winter / Spring 2019" issue of the "Strategic Trade Review" on the following URL:

©"Strategic Trade Review - Winter/Spring 2019" :

<https://strategictraderesearch.org/wp-content/uploads/2019/02/Strategic-Trade-Review-WinterSpring-2019.pdf>

↑

<https://strategictraderesearch.org/strategictradereview/>

CISTEC has written this article in accordance with the request by Dr. Andrea Visk, Founder and Chief Editor of "Strategic Trade Review", on the basis of the recommendation by Head of Outreach Department of US Department of Energy, and it has been published after the review by Dr. Viski and advisors of "Strategic Trade Review".

Also, Twitter of "Strategic Trade Review" of April 16 has introduced this article as follows:

©StrategicTradeReview @StrategiControl

Japan's unique export control model has been key to building a strong compliance culture and effective implementation of controls. Read about CISTEC in the latest issue (Winter/Spring 2019) of the Strategic Trade Review:

<https://twitter.com/StrategiControl/status/1118129830216728577>